TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS

Types of Telephone Interviews

- There are three types of Telephone Interviews:
- 1)You initiate a call to the hiring manager and they express interest in your background
- 2)A company calls you based on your previous contact. You are likely to be unprepared for the call
- 3) You have a pre- set time with a company representative to speak further on the phone.

Preparation for Telephone Interview

- -Keep your documents within easy reach
- -Have a note pad and a pen to take notes
- -Keep a mirror nearby to improve your telephone presence
- -Always stand when talking to a potential employer , this gets your blood flowing and gives an action perception to your call.
- -Try to match your speaking rate and pitch with the interviewer
- -Place a ‘Do not disturb’ note on your door.
- -Turn off your music system and other distractions
- -Warm up your voice
- -Keep a glass of water handy

Guidelines for Telephone Interview

- i)Take surprise call in your stride:
- -When you are unprepared for the call , be calm
- -Sound positive, friendly, and collected.
- ii) Always refer to interviewer by the first name:
- -Greet the interviewer enthusiastically
- -Have a pep in your voice
- -Keep up your end of conversation
- - be sure to ask a few questions
- iii) Beware of giving Yes/No Answers:
- -They give no real information about your abilities
- -Try giving answers that give details about you
- - Be factual in your answers
- -Cover up your short comings with your strengths you can recap

Guidelines for Telephone Interview

- iv) Speak Directly into the Telephone:
- -Keep the mouth piece about one inch from your mouth
- - Don’t smoke or eat while talking on the telephone
- v)Take Notes:
- - At the end interviewer will invite you to ask questions, you can make good use of your notes here.
- -If , for some reason the interview is interrupted , jot down the topic under discussion when he or she gets back on line
