UNIT-4-LECTURE-5

PROCESS OF INTERVIEW

Three Basic Steps

Process of Interview

- Three Basic Steps:
- i)Establishing Rapport(connection)
- ii)Gathering Information
- iii)Closing

Process of Interview

- i)Establishing Rapport :

- - first the impression is formed
- -some employers may claim to be able to make a decision about a candidate in 30 seconds or less.
- -you set the tone for the interview through physical appearance and initial responses.
- -When you enter the room , look around and establish eye contact.
- smile warmly and greet them .
- Shake hands with a firm grip, when invited to so.
- Interviewers will analyse you in reference to the company's culture
- -Your positive attitude and tone will set the tone for interview.
- -It is not necessarily the words you say, but how you say them

Steps in the Process of Interview

- ii)Information Gathering:
  - The employers will be asking questions and matching your answers against the critical success factors.
  - -Open and closed ended questions will be asked
  - - Most interviewers are keenly aware of when they are being snowed.
  - Questions will drill deep into your background
  - -Honesty and sincerity in answering should be evident
  - -You will be judged on attitude , work ethics, intelligence, and honesty.(will you really work hard or are you just looking for a cushy job ?)

Steps in the Process of Interview

- iii) Closing:
- -a)If your interview was successful , there will be an indication of what is to come next
- You may be given company's information which is reserved for select few
- -b)It is important to personally close the interview
- -Be prepared to follow up from your side
- -Always pursue each interview as if it were your last

Follow-up

- There are two simple steps you can make lasting impression after your interview:
- 1)Make a Phone Call to the interviewers to thank them for the time
- If possible, you may want to add additional information which was not discussed in the interview
- Place the phone call the same day
- If unable to reach , leave a voicemail.

Follow-up

- 2)Immediately write the interviewer a short note, thanking them for their time and restate your interest in the position
- Fax it, hand deliver it ,e-mail it
- Be sure they have it before the end of the day.
- These simple gestures of phone call and thanks letter can make a big difference in distinguishing you from your competitors.

Overcoming Nervousness

- Interview is an opportunity to be at your best
- If you allow your nervousness to control your presentation , it may create a dominant impression on your interviewer.
- We get nervous of fear of unknown
- We are unsure of ourselves of how we will be perceived
- There is a simple technique to overcome nervousness
- Rowboat Technique- will help you to overcome fear and successfully meet with and speak to people.

- What are the steps in the process of interview?
- Explain the terms: Follow up
- Overcoming Nervousness